

You Just Got Passed by a Prius / Color Sticker

ART-PRIUS-001 / REV A / 2026.10.10

The finished graphic pairs the supplied Calvin and Hobbes wagon illustration with the words YOU JUST GOT PASSED BY A PRIUS. Yellow, orange, and red lettering lead down to an oversized PRIUS, while a white border joins the illustration and text. This existing PNG was approved for publication on October 10. It is a design asset, not a photograph of an installed car sticker.

RECORD TYPE	build-post

TECHNICAL NOTES

A full-color Prius sticker with a wagon illustration, warm comic lettering, and a large white border connecting the design into one silhouette.

GOAL

Make a playful full-color Prius sticker with a clear slogan and a continuous outer silhouette.

BUILD STORY

The earlier HIGH VOLTAGE / LOW URGENCY wording did not land. This design kept a more direct joke and moved into a full-color composition.

The supplied illustration places Calvin and Hobbes on the left in a red wagon. The lettering uses the same warm palette on the right, ending with PRIUS as the largest word.

A generous white border ties the separate pieces into one sticker-shaped image. Outside that border is transparency. The published asset is the existing PNG, preserved without changing the illustration or inventing a vehicle mockup.

This design belongs to a printable color workflow rather than the black-vinyl cut files from the hazard cup. The record does not include a finished Cricut layout or a known final physical size.

Approval to publish the graphic was confirmed on October 10. The next addition should be a real photo and the size/material used, so the archive can show what happened after the design stage.

RESULT / WHERE THIS STANDS

The graphic exists and is approved for this post. Printing, cutting, installation, and outdoor durability are not documented.

NEXT TO ADD

- Final printed dimensions and chosen sticker material.
- Saved print/cut layout or settings used successfully.
- Photograph on the vehicle and weather/adhesion observations.
