

Home/shop/projects/custom-work/tools site structure

BIZ-009 / REV A / 2026.09.01

The structure separates what can be browsed from what requires an inquiry or future checkout. The archive remains the distinctive center: finished things, failed things, guides, downloads, and future uploads each get a clear path.

TECHNICAL NOTES

Public site-structure plan for home, shop, projects, custom work, tools, about, contact, and policies.

GOAL

Make the site useful now while leaving room for pictures, videos, models, code, downloads, and commerce later.

METHOD / STEPS

1. Keep the home surface short and distinctive.
2. Organize projects and guides with filters.
3. Give every downloadable item its own record.
4. Keep contact and future commerce paths separate from private credentials.
5. Retain old builds in the Graveyard.

RESULT / WHERE THIS STANDS

Starting public information architecture.

TROUBLESHOOTING

- Keep keys, payment credentials, private finances, and customer details outside public records.
- A mockup is not a working integration until the complete path is tested.
- Keep abandoned branches visible as history without presenting them as active offers.
